Shri Kishore Bhaduri, counsel for the petitioner.

Shri Sanjay K Agarwal, Dy. Adv. General with Shri Ranbir Singh, Govt. Adv. for respondents.

Shri Rajeev Shrivastava, counsel for the intervener.

When the matter is called, it is stated by counsel for the petitioner that against the impugned action he has moved an appeal before the respondent No.2 – Commissioner (Excise) and would not like to proceed with the writ petition and would like to withdraw the same.

In view of the above fact that an appeal has been preferred, the petition stands disposed of as withdrawn. It goes without saying that appeal shall be disposed by respondent No.2 on its own merit and in accordance with law after hearing all the parties concerned. If so advised the intervener Akhilesh Singh may also move an appropriate application in the said appeal.

Consequently M.W.P. No.775/02 & I.A.Nos.4210/02, 5536/02, 5496/02, 5503/02 & 6709/02 also stand disposed of.
